

Proseminar & Current Issues in Human Development, Spring 2014

Tuesdays, 12-1:30, R 6494 at The Graduate Center CUNY

February 11th. Professional Development session, all students and faculty invited.

Professor Sarah Berger. Datavyu: A video coding and data visualization tool

March 11th. Invited speakers session, all students and faculty invited.

Lauren Adamson, Regents' Professor of Psychology, Georgia State University

Expanding views of children's joint engagement.

March 25th. Professional Development session, all students and faculty invited.

Professor Deborah Vietze. Ensuring cultural competence in research with populations from different cultural backgrounds than the researcher or research team.

April 8th. Invited speakers session, all students and faculty invited.

Jocelyn Solis Lecture Series on Human Development & Globalization:

Lucia Alcala and Jesica Siham Fernández, University of California, Santa Cruz, presenting

Mexican Immigrant Children's Contributions to a Community Organization: Exploring Civic Engagement and Citizen Construction

with Commentary by Barbara Rogoff (UCSC) and Joe Glick

April 29th. Invited speakers session, all students and faculty invited.

Professor Cathrene Connery, Ithaca College, NY

Circles of Joy: A Cultural Historical Approach to Creative Education for Culturally & Linguistically Diverse Children (actualizing Vygotskian principles in critical, creative classrooms for social justice and educational equity).

May 6th. Invited speakers session, all students and faculty invited.

Professor Beth Ferholt, Brooklyn College, CUNY.

Explorations into children's play