Some selected resources

Articles on CUNY Writing Fellows / WAC Fellows

Halasz, Judith, Brinckner, Maria, Gambs, Deborah, Geraci, Denise, Queeley, Andrea, & Solovyova, Sophie. (2006, August 24). Making it your own: Writing fellows re-evaluate faculty "resistance". Across the Disciplines, 3.

The WAC Clearinghouse:  http://wac.colostate.edu/

Books
The Clearinghouse offers open-access, scholarly books, including original monographs and edited collections. To date, we have published more than 60 books. Our book series:

- Perspectives on Writing
- Reference Guides to Rhetoric and Composition
- Practice and Pedagogy
- NCTE on WAC
- Landmark Publications in Writing Studies
- Writing Spaces
- RhetNet Books
- International Exchanges on the Study of Writing
- Excellence in K-12 WAC

Resources
Our peer-reviewed resources support the use of writing in courses across the disciplines.

- An Introduction to Writing Across the Curriculum
- Statement of WAC Principles and Practices
- The WAC Bibliography
- WAC Conference Proceedings
- Announcements and Calls
- Conferences and Events
- Writing Fellows Programs
- Second-Language Writing
- The Teaching Exchange
- WAC Links
- Scholarly Journals
- Email Lists

CUNY websites

CUNYWAC-WF job descriptions, founding documents & 10-year review, links to campus WAC sites
http://www2.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/undergraduate-studies/wac/

The WAC Resource Center at CUNY Academic Commons-Resources for WF and instructors in many areas of WAC/WID. Also a forum for discussion & other social media elements for connecting with other WFs at all campuses
https://commons.gc.cuny.edu/groups/wac-resource-center/

Other well-known program websites:

- George Mason University
- University of Richmond “Faculty WAC Binder”
http://writing2.richmond.edu/wac/binder/