

At a recent Grolier Virtual Happy Hour,
In talking towards fresh format poetry reading,
Edna St. Vincent Millay was named & lauded,
Which led me to look in the cellar for vintage layed by.

FIRST FIG

My candle burns at both ends;
It will not last the night;
But ah, my foes, and oh, my friends—
It gives a lovely light.

SECOND FIG

SAFE upon the solid rock the ugly houses stand:
Come and see my shining palace built upon the sand.

TO Elinor Wylie
When I think of you,
I die, too,
In my throat, bereft

Like yours, of air,
No sound is left,
Nothing is there
To make a word of grief.
