

Some selected resources

Articles on CUNY Writing Fellows / WAC Fellows

- Cripps, Michael, Jonathan Hall, and Heather Robinson (2015, forthcoming). "A Way to Talk about the Institution as Opposed to Just my Field": WAC Fellowships and Graduate Student Professional Development." Across the Disciplines.
- Halasz, Judith, Brinckner, Maria, Gambs, Deborah, Geraci, Denise, Queeley, Andrea, & Solovyova, Sophie. (2006, August 24). Making it your own: Writing fellows re-evaluate faculty "resistance". Across the Disciplines, 3.
- Robinson, Heather M., & Hall, Jonathan. (2013). Connecting WID and the Writing Center: Tools for Collaboration. The WAC Journal, 24, 29-47.
- Soliday, Mary. (2004). Reading student writing with anthropologists: Stance and judgment in college writing. College Composition and Communication, 56(1): 72-93.
- Yood, Jessica. (2004, December 12). The next stage is a system: Writing across the curriculum and the new knowledge society. Across the Disciplines, 2.

The WAC Clearinghouse: <http://wac.colostate.edu/>

Books

The Clearinghouse offers open-access, scholarly books, including original monographs and edited collections. To date, we have published more than 60 books. Our book series:

- Perspectives on Writing
- Reference Guides to Rhetoric and Composition
- Practice and Pedagogy
- NCTE on WAC
- Landmark Publications in Writing Studies
- Writing Spaces
- RhetNet Books
- International Exchanges on the Study of Writing
- Excellence in K-12 WAC

#writing

Journals

The Clearinghouse publishes, hosts, or provides access to the archives for seven refereed, open-access journals.

CUNY websites

CUNYWAC-WF job descriptions, founding documents & 10-year review, links to campus WAC sites

<http://www2.cuny.edu/about/administration/offices/undergraduate-studies/wac/>

The WAC Resource Center at CUNY Academic Commons-Resources for WF and instructors in many areas of WAC/WID. Also a forum for discussion & other social media elements for

Resources

Our peer-reviewed resources support the use of writing in courses across the disciplines.

An Introduction to Writing Across the Curriculum

Statement of WAC Principles and Practices

The WAC Bibliography

WAC Conference Proceedings

WAC Programs

Announcements and Calls

Conferences and Events

Writing Fellows Programs

Second-Language Writing

The Teaching Exchange

WAC Links

Scholarly Journals

Email Lists

connecting with other WFs at all campuses

<https://commons.gc.cuny.edu/groups/wac-resource-center/>

Other well-known program websites:

George Mason University

University of Richmond "Faculty WAC Binder"

<http://writing2.richmond.edu/wac/binder/>