

- DSC's Utopian and Speculative Fiction Studies Organization -

Thursday, September 18 @ 6:30 -- The Giver Text and Film

Join us in discussing Lois Lowry's classic text, The Giver. We will be going as a group after to see the film adaptation.

Thursday, October 9 @ 6:30 -- What's Fantasy Got To Do With It?

What is 'speculative fiction' and what does it have to do with utopian studies? Come chat about genre, fantasy, science fiction, and what it might mean.

Thursday, November 13 @ 6:30 -- V. Roth's Divergent on Film

Watch the film version of Veronica Roth's book Divergent and come talk with us. How does this dystopian vision function and why does it seem so relevant to so many?

Thursday, December 4 @ 6:30 -- The Magicians by L. Grossman

Read Lev Grossman's The Magicians-- the first in the recently completed trilogy-- and join us in our discussion on genre, imagination, and magic in fiction.

For more information or to join our listserv, email mikaylazm@gmail.com

-- Find us on the CUNY Academic Commons -- Utopian and Speculative Fiction Studies --

The Utopian and Speculative Fiction Studies organization is led by Meira Levinson, Patrick Smyth, and Mikayla Zagoria-Moffet.

- Rooms for all events TBA. All events will be held at the GC. -